

Cafebabel Roma

Director Tiziana Sforza

Contacts

cafebabelroma@gmail.com

Year of Foundation 2011

Legal status voluntary association

Countries of action Italy

Mission and aims

“Cafebabel Roma” association is a branch of cafebabel.com, the first media which, since 2001, covered European issues on a multilanguage web platform, in order to spread a European consciousness among young people. “Cafebabel Rome” shares the same values and it addresses to university students and young professionals to spread a European vision about issues which affect current times: job, participation, social involvement, environment, integration. Strongly based on the local ground, “Cafebabel Rome” aims at animate a public debate among civil society to spread the European point of view about local topics. It achieves this goal organising and taking part to public debates, writing a blog animated by members of the network, taking part on international projects promoted by cafebabel.com

Members & Governance

About ten active member of 30 years old average.

The president of the association is Tiziana Sforza. For the while there are not secretary and treasurer. Members can subscribe spontaneously.

Projects, activities (accomplished missions and on going actions)

“Cafebabel Rome” took part to several project promoted by cafebabel.com and financed by European Commission – DG Education and Culture. Here you can see the two last projects:

February 2011: in the framework of “Green Europe on the Ground”, Cafebabel Rome animated a debate entitled “Green Food: trends and myths of the revolution under our tables” about biological and healthy food as a way to conceive closer relations and to approach the food topic in a different way.

November 2011: in the framework of “Multikulti Europe on the Ground”, Cafebabel Rome animated a debate entitled “Italy vs Second Generation” about the integration of second generation of immigrants living in Italy.

In 2012 Cafebabel Roma is going to take part in the project “Orient Express Reporters” and it will animate a debate about the Italian approach to the enlargement.