

The European Commission presented its 3rd Annual Report on Immigration and Asylum. The Annual Report presents a forward-looking analysis of EU policy on immigration and international protection based on developments in 2011, an important year for the UE in many respects with consequent impact also on migration policy. In this view, the Euro-Mediterranean actors are protagonist.

To read the report (English version) click here .