

Op-Med (Opinion on the Mediterranean) is an ongoing series of opinion pieces on topical issues in Mediterranean politics that brings together experts through the German Marshall Fund – Istituto Affari Internazionali (IAI) strategic partnership. EuroMediter considers it interesting because of its transatlantic perspective.

A year after the Arab spring Ms. Tocci - Deputy Director of the IAI - analyses the European overall response to the historic change underway to its south, delving into the details of what has — and has not — been done.
